- 5.3 If the Tenderer/Service Provider/Contractor can prove that it has restored the damage caused by it and has installed a suitable corruption prevention system, or taken other remedial measures as the circumstances of the case may require, Transnet may at its own discretion revoke the exclusion or suspend the imposed penalty.

6 TRANSNET'S LIST OF EXCLUDED TENDERERS (BLACKLIST)

- 6.1 The process of restriction is used to exclude a company/person from conducting future business with Transnet and other organs of state for a specified period. No Tender shall be awarded to a Tenderer whose name (or any of its members, directors, partners or trustees) appear on the Register of Tender Defaulters kept by National Treasury, or who have been placed on National Treasury's List of Restricted Suppliers. Transnet reserves the right to withdraw an award, or cancel a contract concluded with a Tenderer should it be established, at any time, that a tenderer has been restricted with National Treasury by another government institution.
- 6.2 All the stipulations on Transnet's restriction process as laid down in Transnet's Supply Chain Policy and Procurement Procedures Manual (CPM included) are included herein by way of reference. Below follows a condensed summary of this restriction procedure.
- 6.3 On completion of the restriction procedure, Transnet will submit the restricted entity's details (including the identity number of the individuals and registration number of the entity) to National Treasury for placement on National Treasury's Database of Restricted Suppliers for the specified period of exclusion. National Treasury will make the final decision on whether to restrict an entity from doing business with any organ of state for a period not exceeding 10 years and place the entity concerned on the Database of Restricted Suppliers published on its official website.
- 6.4 The decision to restrict is based on one of the grounds for restriction. The standard of proof to commence the restriction process is whether a "prima facie" (i.e. on the face of it) case has been established.
- 6.5 Depending on the seriousness of the misconduct and the strategic importance of the Goods/Services, in addition to restricting a company/person from future business, Transnet may decide to terminate some or all existing contracts with the company/person as well.
- 6.6 A Service Provider or Contractor to Transnet may not subcontract any portion of the contract to a blacklisted company.

- 6.7 Grounds for blacklisting include: If any person/Enterprise which has submitted a Tender, concluded a contract, or, in the capacity of agent or subcontractor, has been associated with such Tender or contract:
- a) Has, in bad faith, withdrawn such Tender after the advertised closing date and time for the receipt of Tenders;

 - g) caused Transnet damage, or to incur costs in order to meet the contractor's requirements and which could not be recovered from the contractor;
 - h) has litigated against Transnet in bad faith.
- 6.8 Grounds for blacklisting include a company/person recorded as being a company or person prohibited from doing business with the public sector on National Treasury's database of Restricted Service Providers or Register of Tender Defaulters.
- 6.9 Companies associated with the person/s guilty of misconduct (i.e. entities owned, controlled or managed by such persons), any companies subsequently formed by the person(s) guilty of the misconduct and/or an existing company where such person(s) acquires a controlling stake may be considered for blacklisting. The decision to extend the blacklist to associated companies will be at the sole discretion of Transnet.

- 7.2 If it is found to be that the Tenderer/Service Provider/Contractor made an incorrect statement on this subject, the Tenderer/Service Provider/Contractor can be rejected from the registration process or removed from the Tenderer/Service Provider/Contractor database, if already registered, for such reason (refer to the Breach of Law Returnable Form contained in the document.)

NEC3 Supply Contract

Supply and delivery of various valves and actuators for Transnet Pipelines

Document reference	Title	No of pages
C2.1	Pricing assumptions	2
C2.2	The price schedule	[•]

C2.1 Pricing assumptions

1. The conditions of contract

1.1. How goods and services are priced and assessed for payment

Clause 11 in NEC3 Supply Contract, December 2009 (SC)(with amendments April 2013) core clauses states:

Identified and defined terms	11
	11.2	(11) The Prices are the amounts stated in the price column of the Price Schedule. Where a quantity is stated for an item in the Price Schedule, the Price is calculated by multiplying the quantity by the rate.
		(12) The Price Schedule is the price schedule unless later changed in accordance with this contract.
Assessing the amount due	50.2	The amount due is <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the Price for each lump sum item in the Price Schedule which the Supplier has completed, where a quantity is stated for an item in the Price Schedule, an amount calculated by multiplying the quantity which the Supplier has completed by the rate, plus other amounts to be paid to the Supplier, less amounts to be paid by or retained from the Supplier.
		Any tax which the law requires the Purchaser to pay to the Supplier is included in the amount due.

This confirms that the Supply Contract is a priced contract where the Prices are derived from a list of items of goods and services which can be priced as lump sums or as expected quantities of goods and services multiplied by a rate, or a mix of both.

1.2. Function of the Price Schedule

Clause 53.1 states: "Information in the Price Schedule is not Goods Information". This confirms that instructions to do work or how it is to be done are not included in the Price Schedule but in the Goods Information. This is further confirmed by Clause 20.1 which states, "The Supplier Provides the Goods and Services in accordance with the Goods Information". Hence the Supplier does not Provide the Goods and Services in accordance with the Price Schedule. The Price Schedule is only a pricing document.

1.3. Preparing the price schedule

It will be assumed that the tendering supplier has read Pages 11 and 12 and Appendix 5 of the SC Guidance Notes before preparing the price schedule. Items in the price schedule may have been inserted by the Purchaser and the tendering supplier should insert any additional items which he considers necessary. Whichever party provides the items in the price schedule the total of the Prices is assumed to be fully inclusive of everything necessary to Provide the Goods and Services as described at the time of entering into this contract.

1 As the Supplier has an obligation to correct Defects (core clause 43.1) and there is no compensation event for this unless the Defect was due to a Supplier's risk, the lump sum Prices and rates must also include for the correction of Defects.

2 If the Supplier has decided not to identify a particular item in the price schedule at the time of tender the cost to the Supplier of doing the work is assumed to be included in, or spread across, the other Prices and rates in the price schedule in order to fulfil the obligation to Provide the Goods and Services for the tendered total of the Prices.

3 There is no adjustment to lump sum prices in the price schedule if the amount, or quantity, of work within that lump sum item of goods or services later turns out to be different to that which the Supplier estimated at time of tender. The only basis for a change to the Prices is as a result of a compensation event. See Clause 60.1.

4 Hence the Prices and rates tendered by the Supplier in the price schedule are inclusive of everything necessary and incidental to Providing the Goods and Services in accordance with the Goods Information, as it was at the time of tender, as well as correct any Defects not caused by a Purchaser's risk.

5 The Supplier does not have to allow in his Prices and rates for matters that may arise as a result of a compensation event. It should be noted that the list of compensation events includes those arising as a result of a Purchaser's risk event listed in core clause 80.1.

1.4. Format of the price schedule

(From Appendix 5 on page 78 of the SC Guidance Notes)

Entries in the first four columns in the price schedule in section C2.2 are made either by the Purchaser or the tendering supplier.

If the Supplier is to be paid an amount for the item which is not adjusted if the quantity of work in the item changes, the tendering supplier enters the amount in the Price column only, the Unit, Quantity and Rate columns being left blank.

If the Supplier is to be paid an amount for the item which is the rate for the item multiplied by the quantity completed, the tendering Supplier enters the rate which is then multiplied by the Quantity to produce the Price, which is also entered.

If the Supplier is to be paid an amount for an item proportional to the length of time for which the goods and services are provided, a unit of time is stated in the Unit column and the length of time (as a quantity of the stated units of time) is stated in the Quantity column.

1. TRANSNET PIPELINE BACKGROUND

Transnet Pipelines (TPL), a business unit of Transnet, provides strategic pipeline infrastructure, with associated world class pipeline logistics, for the petroleum and gas industries of South Africa. This is done in partnership with our customers and stakeholders thereby assuring the African sustainable development imperative.

Established in 1965, Transnet Pipelines owns, maintains, and operates a network of some 3100 km of high-pressure petroleum and gas pipelines. Transnet Pipelines transports an average of 17 billion litres of fuel per annum. This includes diesel, unleaded petrol, aviation turbine fuel and crude oil.

2. EMPLOYER REQUIREMENTS

Transnet Pipelines requires the supply and delivery of various size and type valves and actuators as listed below for use in the petrochemical industry to replace defective valves currently in the operational field. 8. GENERAL SPECIFICATION FOR STEEL VALVES

The valves to be supplied under this tender shall be generally in accordance with:

8.1. The latest edition of the American Petroleum Institute's Specification for the relevant valve type/style as stated in the accompanying TPL specification.

8.2. The following amplifications and additions to the above API and BS Specifications, apply where relevant, to all valves.

8.2.1. Design and Standardisation

8.2.1.1. The valves shall be designed to ensure satisfactory operation, in which strength, durability, reliability, tightness and ease of operation and maintenance, giving continuity of service are the prime considerations. All valves of the same type, size and pressure rating shall be interchangeable with one another.

8.2.1.2. Where flanged ends are specified sufficient clearance must be allowed between the bodies and flanges to enable flange bolts to be fitted. Where this is not practicable, tapped holes must be provided.

8.2.1.3. All material shall be in accordance with Section 3 of API Specification STD 6D.

8.2.2. Tests

8.2.2.1. Each valve is to be subjected to tests as detailed in section 5 of the API Specification STD 6D. When stipulated the Tenderer will, subject to approval of the Engineer, appoint an independent internationally recognised inspection authority in the case of imported valves. The inspection authority appointed by TPL will inspect locally manufactured valves.

8.2.2.2. After completion of the hydrostatic seat tests on the valves and while the pressure is maintained at the values given in Table 5.1, for all sizes of valves, the valve shall be gradually opened until the pressure is broken. The sealing rings shall show no damage.

8.2.2.3. Tests shall also be carried out on vertical stem type valves with the gland slackened back, or with the packing removed, in order to ascertain that it is possible to repack the valve under pressure.

8.2.2.4. Operational torque test as detailed in Appendix C of API Spec 6D is required on each valve.

8.2.2.5. Test liquid shall be water.

8.2.2.6. Test certificates setting out clearly the method of testing in respect of each valve shall be supplied in triplicate.

8.2.3. Valve Ends

8.2.3.1. Welding End Finish

Welding ends shall be in accordance with Section 2.7 of API 6D/Latest.

8.2.3.2. Flange Finish

All valves larger than 50 mm bore shall be flanged or weld end. Flanges are to be raised face for gaskets, and gasket contact surfaces shall have a serrated finish conforming to ANSI B16.5-1988/Latest paragraph 6.4.4.1 or equal approved.

Flange dimensions and drilling shall be in accordance with ANSI B16.5 - (Latest): Pipe Flanges and Flanged Fittings, or British Standard (Latest): 1958 - Steel Pipe Flanges and Flanged Fittings (nominal sizes 1/2 in. to 24 in.) for the Petroleum Industry.

8.2.3.3. Threads shall be to American Standard Pipe Threads (NPT)

8.2.4. Bolts, Stud Bolts, Screws, Studs, Nuts and Threads used in Valve Construction

These shall be in accordance with the appropriate part of British Standard BS 1750 /Latest - Bolting for the Petroleum Industry, in respect of high-pressure service. The dimensions of bolting smaller than 12 mm shall comply with British Standard 1768: /Latest - Unified Precision Hexagon Bolts, Screws and Nuts (UNC and UNF threads) - Normal Series.

8.2.5. Support Ribs or Legs

These are to be provided on all valves of 200-mm nominal diameter and larger.

8.2.6. Lifting Bolts

Each valve 300 mm nominal size and over shall be provided with adequate eye bolts for lifting.

8.2.7. Repair of Defects

8.2.7.1. Defects, which are revealed on inspection and which do not impair the strength of the castings may be welded by an approved process, provided they are first submitted to the purchaser's inspectorate for examination. Properly qualified welders shall carry out all welding.

8.2.7.2. Defects shall be cleaned out to sound metal before welding, and shall be re-submitted to the purchaser's allocated inspectorate for approval in this condition, after which they may be welded if the purchaser so agrees. After welding, castings shall be heat-treated, but welds required only for finish and appearance need not be heat-treated if the purchaser approves this. When the welding of defects is permitted, the welding rod shall be such as to produce a weld having characteristics similar to the parent metal. Peening of leaks will not be permitted.

8.2.8. Opening and Closing of Valves

Valves shall be closed by rotating the stems or spindles in a clockwise direction when looking down on top of the valve. The direction of closing of the valve shall be clearly indicated by means of arrows and the words "SHUT" cast on to the bonnet or other suitable place. Valves fitted with handwheels are; in addition, to have the handwheels similarly marked. The valves shall be capable of being operated under the full unbalanced pressure of their respective classes, acting on either side of the valve check.

8.2.9. Painting

8.2.9.1. After inspection and testing all components shall be thoroughly cleaned.

8.2.9.2. Painting shall be to the manufacturers standard painting procedure. Details of this procedure are to be submitted to Transnet Pipelines for approval prior to commencement of painting.

8.2.9.3. The cost of all painting is deemed to be included in the quoted prices of the valves.

8.2.10. Packing for Delivery

In addition to the protection of welding ends or sealing surfaces specified, end covers on all valves are to cover the entire opening to prevent the ingress of dirt, foreign matter and the like.

8.2.11. Service and Instruction

All valves will be installed by other contractors but Tenderers shall have a qualified representative available at all times during commissioning of the valve for the purpose of instruction, checking, setting, adjustment or any other service which may be required in connection with the proper functioning of the valves.

In addition Tenderers must include in their quotations for the supply of 5 servicing manuals, in English, for each type of valve offered as well as for a site visit by the representative to one of Petronet's pump stations (to be nominated) for purposes of instructing the operating staff on methods of valve maintenance, repair and operation. Quotations for valves shall be deemed to include the above services.

8.2.12. Gearing

Certain valves, where required by the contract, are to be provided with suitable bevel or spur gearing which shall be machine cut and finished within the limits dictated by the good practice for this class of work. Keys shall be used to secure gears or pinions to shafts. Gear ratios are to be sufficiently high to ensure easy manual operation and close control of flow. In the case of bevel gearing, handwheels are to be side mounted. Shafts shall be mounted in bearings of adequate design, provided with suitable means for satisfactory lubrication. When design permit, gearing shall be enclosed to prevent dirt and foreign matter accumulating in the assembly. Gearing of power operated valves shall be completely guarded.

8.2.13. Spare Parts

Tenderers shall submit a priced list of spare parts for each size and type of valve offered, together with a list of spares that the Contractor recommends that the Purchaser keep in stock for the replacement of wearing parts. 2. SCOPE

This specification defines the minimum requirements for electric actuators having a three phase motor, reduction gearing, reversing contactor starter with local / remote controls, turns and torque limitation with electronic logic controls and monitoring facilities, all housed in a flameproof double-sealed watertight enclosure in compliance with IP 68. Contractors are required to familiarise themselves with all applicable Standards and Codes of Practice listed herein, and to ensure compliance in the execution of any work in terms of this document. Failure to comply may render the contractor liable for corrections at his own cost.

These Standards and Codes of Practice should be read in conjunction with all other Specifications and drawings as issued for a particular contract. Where discrepancies occur, these must be brought to the attention of Transnet Pipelines in writing before commencement of work. In the event of any conflict between the contents of any documents forming part of a contract (as listed in the Schedule of Contract Documents) and this document, the former shall prevail.

- 4.13.3 The terminal compartment shall be separated from the inner electrical components of the actuator by means of a watertight seal and shall be provided with a minimum of 3 threaded cable entries of size M20. The center entry shall be equipped / fitted with a "EXD" flameproof plug.
- 4.13.4 All wiring supplied as part of the actuator to be contained within the main enclosure for physical and environmental protection. External conduit connections between components are not acceptable. A durable terminal identification card showing a plan of terminals shall be provided attached to the inside of the terminal box cover indicating:
- Serial number
 - External voltage values
 - Wiring diagram number
 - Terminal layout

4.14 Hand Operation

- 4.14.1 A handwheel shall be provided for emergency operation, engaged when the motor is declutched by a lever or similar means, the drive being restored to electrical operation automatically by starting the motor. The handwheel or selection lever shall not move on restoration of motor drive. Provision shall be made for the hand/auto selection lever to be locked in both hand and auto positions. It should be possible to select hand operation while the actuator is running or start the actuator motor while the hand/auto selection lever is locked in hand without damage to the drive train.
- 4.14.2 Clockwise operation of the handwheel shall give closing movement of the valve unless otherwise stated in the data sheet. For linear valve types the actuator handwheel drive must be mechanically independent of the motor drive and should be such as to permit valve operation in a reasonable time with a manual force not exceeding 400N through stroke and 800N for seating/unseating of the valve.

4.15 Drive Interface

- 4.15.1 The actuator shall be furnished with a drive bushing that is easily detachable for machining to suit the valve stem or gearbox input shaft. The drive bush shall be positioned in a detachable base of the actuator. Thrust bearings shall be sealed for life and the base shall be capable of withstanding five times the rated thrust of the actuator.

4.16 Gearing

- 4.16.1 The actuator gearing shall be totally enclosed in an oil-filled gearcase suitable for operation at any angle. Grease lubrication is not permissible. All drive gearing and components must be of metal construction and incorporate a lost-motion hammerblow feature.
- 4.16.2 For rising spindle valves the output shaft shall be hollow to accept a rising stem, and incorporate thrust bearings of the ball or roller type at the base of the actuator. The design should be such as to permit the opening of the gearcase for inspection or disassembled without releasing the stem thrust or taking the valve out of service.
- 4.16.3 For 90° operating type of valves (Four-Way Diverter Valves) drive gearing shall be self-locking to prevent the valve back-driving the actuator.

4.17 Valve Position Transmitter

- 4.17.1 The actuator shall provide a contactless, internally fed 4 - 20 mA analogue signal which shall be proportional to the valve position and selectable for minimum signal corresponding to fully Closed or Open with automatic zero span setting.
- 4.17.2 OPTION – Only if specified: The actuator shall be equipped with a function as to change position ranging from 0% to 100% if pulsed from a remote 4 to 20mA control signal.

4.18 Speed Of Operation

- 4.18.1 The valve supplier shall specify the opening and closing times.

4.19 Guarantee

- 4.19.1 The actuator shall be subject to a guarantee for a period of one year against faulty and/or inferior workmanship and material.
- 4.19.2 The guarantee period shall commence the day the actuator is commissioned and accepted by Transnet Pipelines.

4.20 Drawings / Diagrams

- 4.20.1 Detailed drawings and circuit diagrams shall be supplied with the actuator

Sign:.....

4.21 Flameproof Certificates

- 4.21.1 A certificate must be issued by an approved inspection authority, certifying that the actuator has been found, through inspection and testing, to be constructed in accordance with standards listed under clause 3, of this document, and suitable for use in Zone 1 locations.

4.22 Commissioning Kit

- 4.22.1 Each actuator shall be supplied with a start-up kit comprising installation instruction manual, electrical wiring diagram and cover seals to make good any site losses during the commissioning period. In addition, sufficient actuator commissioning tools shall be supplied to enable actuator set up and adjustment during valve/actuator testing and site installation commissioning.

Sign:.....

4.23 Performance and Test Certificate

4.23.1 Each actuator must be performance tested and individual test certificates shall be supplied free of charge. The test equipment should simulate a typical valve load, and the following parameters should be recorded.

- Current at maximum torque setting
- Torque at maximum torque setting
- Flash test voltage
- Actuator output speed or operating time.

4.23.2 In addition, the test certificate should record details of specification such as gear ratios for both manual and automatic and second stage gearing if provided, drive closing direction, wiring diagram number.

5. COMPLIANCE

5.1 Tenders shall submit their main offers in terms of this specification. Deviations from the laid down requirements, which are of a minor nature and do not depart materially from the specification will be considered at the discretion of the Chief Executive, Transnet Pipelines or delegated member.

5.2 Tenders shall sign each paragraph either that their offers comply in every respect with this specification, or, if not, precisely how they differ.

5.3 A broad statement to the effect that the equipment is in accordance with the specification is not acceptable.

5.4 Failure to comply with the above requirements may preclude a tenderer from consideration.
